

Rutland Morris are recruiting!

Rutland Morris Men are seeking new dancers and musicians. Why not come to an informal session on Monday 18 September at Ashwell Village Hall where there will be an opportunity to learn (at least) one dance, and speak to our band of musicians about playing an instrument for Rutland Morris?

You will be made most welcome. Come on your own, or perhaps why not come 'mob handed' with a few friends? All you need is a bit of 'bottle' to overcome those initial nerves. We are a very friendly bunch.

There are so many things to be gained from joining the Rutland Morris.

- Friendship (above all)
- Satisfaction in helping to maintain tradition
- Lots of visits to local villages and pubs
- Chances to join weekend tours
- A fitness work out once a week!
- You get to wear some awesome clothes...and a hat!
- Status...looks good on a CV (it really does!!)

Although we are a male side (club) we would welcome all to this particular session. The evening timing is from 8.00pm to 10.00pm with a beer in an Oakham pub afterwards. All you need is loose clothing and comfortable shoes such as trainers.

You can just turn up on the night, but it would be helpful to let us know if you are thinking of coming. Just contact Charles our 'bagman' (secretary) on bagman@morrismen.org.uk. You can find out MORE about Rutland Morris on their website www.morrismen.org.uk
